CHANGE OF PARISH PRIEST

After almost 8 years of being parish priest of St. Augustine of Hippo, I will be leaving St. Austell this autumn as Bishop Mark has asked me to take up a new appointment. I will be moving out of Cornwall to Barnstaple and back to England! I will be moving out at the beginning of October. I will greatly miss what has been a very friendly and supportive parish community and I will remember this parish with great fondness and affection. I'm afraid this is part of the priestly life and part of parish life.

Fr. Michael Brandon, who is a priest of the Archdiocese of Birmingham and currently a parish priest in Coventry, will be taking over as Priest-in-Charge almost immediately upon my departure. Fr. Michael is a married former minister of the Anglican Church and was ordained a Catholic priest in 1998.

Fr. Paul Andrew, who has been on sabbatical in the parish since Easter, will be moving to the Helston presbytery in September.

Please keep us all in your prayers.

Fr. Peter

ALTERATIONS TO THE LADY CHAPEL

A significant majority of parishioners who have expressed their opinion either verbally, by letter or by email about the proposed changes to the Lady Chapel have been in favour of replacing the present plaque with the wooden statue. Therefore work will begin on the Lady Chapel this week. As well as building a simple plinth for the statue, this work will also include repainting the chapel in a pale blue. The plaque will be kept here at St. Augustine's, although a new location has not yet been finally decided. I do realise some are not in favour of this. Art is always very subjective and we are never all going to agree.

GUIDE FOR READERS

The July - September issue is now available for Readers to pick up in the Server's sacristy. If you are a Minister of the Word at the weekend Masses, please take a copy. It gives a brief overview of the essential message conveyed by the readings and the links between the Old and New Testament passages.

If you use these envelopes and have not already picked up your box, please make sure you do so as soon as possible. If you do not already do so but would like to join the envelope scheme or would like to know more about it, Rob Kendall, Tel: 01726 844417 our parish treasurer, is very willing to help you. It is now a good time to review your tax position and if you gift aid your donations but are now no longer a tax payer, please let Rob know.
