RECEIVING HOLY COMMUNION

The Bishops of England and Wales have now decreed that in the light of the reduced dangers of catching or transmitting the coronavirus Holy Communion on the tongue, either standing or kneeling, will now be allowed. If this is how you prefer to share in the Eucharist the Bishops ask you to approach the altar towards the end of Holy Communion as and when everybody else has finished. What is not yet permitted however is reception from the chalice.

FROM FATHER MICHAEL

Sadly and very reluctantly I've decided to postpone the proposed parish relaunch. The 21st June date for the relaxation of Covid restrictions is looking increasingly insecure. We definitely need a relaunch. We need to listen together to the Spirit. We need to re-shape the way we do our mission. We need everyone to feel involved. So the relaunch will happen but not quite yet. Watch this space.

A READING FROM THE SERMONS OF ST AUGUSTINE FOR THE BIRTH OF ST JOHN THE BAPTIST

"John, it seems, has been inserted as a kind of boundary between the two Testaments, the Old and the New. That he is somehow or other a boundary is something that the Lord himself indicates when he says, The Law and the prophets were until John. So he represents the old and heralds the new. Because he represents the old, he is born of an elderly couple; because he represents the new, he is revealed as a prophet in his mother's womb.

You will remember that, before he was born, at Mary's arrival he leapt in his mother's womb. Already he had been marked out there, designated before he was born; it was already shown whose forerunner he would be, even before he saw him. These are divine matters, and exceed the measure of human frailty. Finally, he is born, he receives a name, and his father's tongue is loosed."

KNEELING IN THE PEWS

To express our devotion and love of the Lord, those of us who are able, like to kneel down. In the interests of Covid security could you please refrain from kneeling if that means being too close to the people in the pew in front of you. Thank you.

AUTUMN FAYRE – SATURDAY 25TH SEPTEMBER

Please put this date in your diary, start collecting those bottles, there will be some stalls inside and some outside in the car park. Pray for good weather!

CATENIAN TREASURE HUNT

This is a car treasure hunt organised by the Duchy Catenians on Sunday 13th June. From 11:30am /12noon. We will be leaving from St Augustine's car park. Final destination PL26 8UQ No 1 Penwithich Road. About 30 mins drive. Bring your own picnic (socially distanced). Hot drinks provided. Hopefully outside but provision for all weather!. Entry £5 per car profits to Catenian president's charity. Everyone welcome, do come and join in.
